Dear Volunteer

Volunteerism is an everyday subject for the large majority of museums in Ontario. Students seeking for some hands on experience, seniors in need of an occupation, history buffs, they all offer invaluable support to museum workers.

Question: What was your favourite education facilitator?

Gr 5 student answer:

"Why are you asking me such difficult questions?"

“I enjoyed the history that we never got to learn in school”

Gr 10 student

“When I visited , I enjoyed looking at the badges, guns, people,
wearing the clothes”
Gr 8 student

“The favourite artefact on display was the Morse Code and the try-on uniforms; it makes the experience more real”
