

LEVERAGING THE MAGIC OF MENTORS

---

Kate Butler

Director, Haliburton Highlands Museum

OBJECTIVES FOR TODAY

---

- ❖ To tell you about an amazing program run by the Haliburton Highlands Museum
- ❖ To share some lessons we learned along the way
- ❖ To give you some laughs on a Friday morning!

FIRST A QUESTION:

---

❖ What skill do you wish you had learned from a parent or grandparent when you were a kid?

MENTORSHIP MAGIC

---

❖ In the first year of the program, we hosted workshops on tatting, oil painting, spinning, fibre dyeing, knitting, crochet, jam making, beekeeping, embroidery, quilting, calligraphy, cursive writing, baking, dairying, rope making and knot tying, homemade bath products and so much more!

LESSON 1

Focus on the Personal Touch
to Find Mentors

LESSON 2

If At All Possible, Devote Staff Hours to the Program

LESSON 3

Harness the Power of Social Media

LESSON 4

Nature Can Be Both Friend and Foe...

LESSON 5

Be Prepared for Adults Crashing
Your Kids' Programs!

AND LESSON SIX – STAY READY FOR ANYTHING!

