

How to Find a Facilitator

ENGAGING YOUR COMMUNITY: A TOOLKIT FOR MUSEUMS

A skilled facilitator is a great asset in the Engaging your Community process. There are plenty of experienced consultants working in the museum and cultural sector you can hire, but there may be other organizations that can connect you with a skilled individual to help you at no charge.

- Your Ministry of Tourism, Culture & Sport/Citizenship, Immigration & International Trade Regional Advisor
 - <http://www.citizenship.gov.on.ca/english/aboutus/> (link to regional service branch contacts)
- The Ministry of Agriculture, Food and Rural Affairs
 - <http://www.omafra.gov.on.ca>
- Your municipality - there may be some very skilled facilitators working with your municipality (e.g. the planning department) who could lend you their skills.
- Your union - if you operate in a unionized environment, ask if there is someone with facilitation skills willing to work with your group.
- Ontario Museum Association Services Directory
 - <http://www.museumsontario.com/en/78>
- Arts Consultants Canada
 - <http://www.artsconsultants.ca>
- CultureConsultants.ca
 - <http://www.cultureconsultants.ca>
- United Way (to connect to the United Way office in your area)
 - www.unitedway.ca
- Canadian Council of Human Resource Associations
 - <http://www.cchra.ca>
- Cultural Human Resource Council (CHRC)
 - <http://www.culturalhrc.ca/index-e.asp>